BAR SIDE OF THE STAGE

SMOKE ON THE WATER - Deep Purple 1972 14,00

Where there's smoke, there's fire - and a splash of trouble. Peated whiskey meets lemon waves, cinnamon kicks, and a smoky syrup swirl. It's liquid rock, smooth and wild.

BLACK VELVET - Alannah Myles 1989 14,00

Darkness never tasted so smooth. Velvet shadows of vanilla, blackcurrant and black lemon, topped with a sinful white cloud. Dangerously elegant.

LONDON CALLING - The Clash 1979 14,00

Crisp like a British comeback. Dry gin, rosemary tonic, lime zest and Angostura - it's the Clash in a glass. London's calling, better answer loud.

SWEET CHILD O'MINE - Guns N'Roses 1987 14,00

So sweet, so deadly. Amber rum, strawberry dreams, a kiss of rose and lemon twist - topped with mint, just like paradise in a glass, with a guitar solo.

ACE OF SPADES - Motörhead 1980 14,00

Born to lose, built to burn. Chili tequila, coffee liquor, and a straight shot of espresso - it's loud, it's dark, it's lethal. Just like Lemmy liked it.

THE DEACON SIGNATURE - Pure product of the House 14,00

A bold mix of smoky Scotch, sweet caramel and a hint of bitters, brought to life with the fiery kick of ginger ale.

THE STORY OF BACKSTAGE

Behind every concert there's a hidden world. A place far from the spotlight, where guitars are tuned, amps are tested, and artists find a moment of truth before stepping into the chaos of the stage. That secret place is the Backstage.

We chose this name because it's more than just a word, it's a promise. A promise that when you walk through our doors, you're stepping into the raw, electric soul of rock'n'roll. Here, the walls speak. They're dressed in the posters of legendary nights, from the wild fire of KISS to the timeless riffs of the Rolling Stones. Vinyls and guitars hang like relics of a glorious past, lit by the glow of neon, echoing the spirit of nights that never end.

But what truly fuels the Backstage is what's in your glass. The burning heart of Jack Daniel's, the smoky elegance of The Deacon, the rebel sweetness of Bumbu, and the sparkling energy of Pepsi, together they carry the soundtrack of your night. Every sip, every bite, every note of music here is a tribute to the legends who showed us that rock is not just sound. It's a way of life.

We are proud to say we're the only place in Luxembourg where you can feel this energy. Not just a restaurant. Not just a bar. But a place where every night is a concert, every table is a stage, and every guest is part of the band.

Welcome to the Backstage. The show starts now.
